COMINGS AND GOINGS

LAURENCE BOULLE

It is with pride, and a tinge of sadness, that we announce a two-year adventure for the founder of the Bond University Dispute Resolution Centre, Laurence Boulle. In July 2009 Laurence will take up a two year appointment as Director of the Mandela Institute for Global Economic Law and Issy Wolfson Professor of Law, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg.

Laurence is planning to return to Bond University for a few quick visits during that time and will still be involved in some short courses.

We believe that it is only coincidence that this appointment overlaps with the Soccer World Cup 2010 in South Africa.

DOGGEREL POETRY PUBLICATION

Doggerel Poetry Publication

John Wade's large research grant to write doggerel jurisprudential poetry has come to fruition. Honeyman, Coben and De Palo, Rethinking Negotiation Teaching: Innovations for Context and Culture (St Paul, MN: DR1 Press) will be available at the ABA Convention on Dispute Resolution in New York in April 2009. Epilogue: Chapter 23 consists of a poem entitled "The Committee to Make the Students Learn".

Bruce Bott, Law Librarian from Murdoch University Law School, visited Bond 15-20 January 2009 and collected information on legal education and skills training.
