COPYRIGHT

In compliance with the Australian Copyright Act 1968 (as amended), the undersigned author/authors warrant(s) that he/she/they has/have sole ownership of the work submitted.

The author(s) further warrant(s) that the work has not been offered concurrently to any other journal.

The author(s) further warrant(s) that this is not a duplicate submission, ie, the work on which this paper is based has not already been reported in full or in large part in a published article or in another paper that has been submitted or accepted for publication elsewhere, in print or in electronic media. If submission stems from a dataset about which the author(s) has/have published a previous report or have submitted a related report to another publication, full disclosure is made to the Australian Journal of Physiotherapy with the submission.

In consideration of the Australian Journal of Physiotherapy, taking action in reviewing and editing my (our) submission, the undersigned author (or authors) hereby transfer(s), assign(s) or otherwise convey(s) all copyright ownership to the APA in the event that such work is published by the APA in the Journal. In addition, the author(s) hereby grant(s) the Australian Journal of Physiotherapy the right to revise, abridge, condense and translate the foregoing work. If the work stems from a funding arrangement that requires posting of the paper to an open access archive, the Australian Journal of Physiotherapy hereby grants permission providing that only the complete and final .pdf of the print version is posted, and the journal is notified of the name and address of the archive on posting.

The author(s) declare(s) that he/she/they has/have full powers to grant such rights, and that the nominated corresponding author for review has the authority to negotiate and approve editorial revisions.
