MESSAGE FROM RACE DIRECTOR

The 1987 Great Lakes Triathlon became a successful reality on 28th March, 1987, due to the efforts of many, many volunteers and supporters and my thanks and congratulations go to them, to our sponsors and to the competitors.

From 198 individual entrants and 16 team entries, 191 individuals and 16 teams actually faced the starters gun. These results now show that 165 individuals and 14 teams were able to complete this most demanding triathlon of all - the Ultra Distance and it was a privilege to be part of and witness such a race.

Thanks must also go to the N.Z. Double Brown Ironman Triathlon organisation for their generous provision of 6 exemptions for the 1987 Bud Light Triathlon World Championships in Hawaii. These exemptions have been won and accepted by Chris Bateley, Bob Telfer, Greg Welch, Glen Forbes, Rob Zwierlein and Jan Wanklyn and we wish them every success in October.

See you all in 1988 for a bigger, better and even more enjoyable Great Lakes Triathlon.
